

Accused Killer To Court

SOUTHWEST -- Walter L. Scoggins, 27, a resident of Wrobel's trailer court near Lemont, is awaiting further processing in the courts following arraignment Monday afternoon.

Scoggins was arrested and charged with murder by Will County Sheriff's police Monday morning. He was charged with murder by Will County Sheriff's police Monday morning. He was charged with the murder of Floyd A. Ortendahl, 57, of Rt. 1, Oak Ave., in Lockport.

Ortendahl, a driver for the Yellow Cab Co. in Joliet, was found at 7:30 a.m. Sunday on Bluff Rd., one and a half miles east of Rt. 53.

An apparent robbery victim, Ortendahl had been stabbed in the back and chest.

His cab was found in the Lemont area several hours later. Sources said the cab was found on Rt. 171 near State St., which is south of Lemont.

Jack Adams, vice president and general manager of the cab company, said Ortendahl was dispatched to pick-up a fare at a public phone booth in Joliet at 1:45 a.m. Sunday and to take a passenger to Lemont.

At 2:45 a.m., he said,

Ortendahl reported he had dropped off the fare. That was the last time the driver was heard from, Adams said.

According to Martin Rudman, first assistant state's attorney in Will County, Scoggins was brought before magistrate Thomas Wilson at the Woodruff Hotel in Joliet Monday afternoon for a preliminary hearing.

Following the hearing, the suspect was to be removed to the Will County jail.

Ortendahl's body was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital by deputy coroner William Goodale, for an autopsy.

Ortendahl was laying on his left side on the left side of Bluff Rd., according to police reports. Officers at the scene removed a driver's license and checkbook from the victim's clothing. These were sent to the state crime lab.

The driver apparently died of multiple knife wounds in the chest and back.

Ortendahl had been living in the area for five months. He had come from New Mexico, but had lived here previously.

At the Monday hearing, Scoggins was presented with the charges against him. A date was expected to be set for further hearings.

20 Pleading For Truck Control

MRS. JOSEPH D. YURKANIN, seated at the end of the table, served as spokesman for a group of Frankfort residents protesting the willy-nilly driving of big trucks thru the village. They want a truck route established. Some of the group is seated back of Mrs. Yurkanin. They voiced their protest at a meeting of the Frankfort village board.

FRANKFORT -- Traffic patterns, including truck routes, road and street construction, annexation and zoning, were topics that occupied the attention of the Frankfort village board at its recent session.

Mayor Glenn Warning started the ball rolling when he read the minutes of a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce which included a request that Frankfort and New Lenox bring what pressure they can muster to get action on widening U.S. 30 from Harlem Av. to Joliet.

Then a group of some 20 residents, with Mrs. Joseph D. Yurkanin as spokesman, appeared before the board to urge controls for truck traffic, including a truck route that would prevent the big vehicles from cruising about residential areas.

Location of a north-south expressway in relation of Frankfort was discussed by Bert Breidert, chairman of the planning commission. He was accompanied to the village meeting by three members of the planning group, Chester Arthur, Harold Ebert and Scherrill Weichbrodt.

New Preserve Vote 'No'

By MARGE RATCLIFFE

LEMONT -- The Lemont Village Board voted Monday night to support Mayor John Kujawa's opposition to acquisition of land for forest preserve purposes in an area west of Stephens St., south of Bluff Road, north of the Des Plaines River, and including the Des Plaines River.

All board members voted for the opposition except Dr. Ladd, who felt there can never be enough forest preserves. The area covers about 300 acres.

Mayor Kujawa, on the other hand, said he had told the Cook County Board earlier in the day that he was "sick and tired of having things 'done' for Lemont." He feels that all Lemont has received in the past from forest preserves is sludge, slips, and garbage.

He said, "We have no swimming pool, no bridal paths, but a dump." He also clarified his continuing opposition to forest preserves on the north of Lemont, a fight he has been carrying on for many years.

He pointed out that Lemont Township would not only lose the land, but the tax base. One of the council members asked him what taxes are currently being paid on the 300 acres in question, and he replied, "I imagine about $3,000 per year."

The land is currently zoned as M-3 Industrial, and is taxed as farm land.

In other business the council--

- Heard a report from Bob Kuebler, of R. P. Donohoe

Co., stating that his company uses a monitor in their blasting and that they have lowered their vibrations. He stated that they use a maximum of 65 pounds of powder in a hole, and that their work does not crack plaster.

He said his company knows of no way to do quiet blasting, but that they would work with the council in any way they could.

- Granted permission for children of the Methodist Church to collect for UNICEF on Friday, Oct. 31. All trick or treating will take place on Thursday, Oct. 30. The "trick or treats" on Friday night will be solely for UNICEF.

- One of the members said he would like to mention how nice the Waterworks looks with its fresh coat of paint. The mayor then asked the council to consider the front of the City Hall.

He said the sign was not easily read, and the front of the building is not a welcome sight for strangers or even persons familiar with the building. He said that the front is covered with egg stains, and that the inner hall, leading to various city offices is "obnoxious."

The cost of a new sign, plus signs over the windows of the water department and the police department will be investigated, plus replacement of the threshold, which is beyond repair.

- Were invited to attend a meeting of the Roundtable Council, to be held Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Village Hall. The speaker will be Royal McClellan, administrative director of the Isaac Walton League.

Dist. 205 Is Short $1.7 Million

LOCKPORT -- Harold Scholle, superintendent of District 205, told the board of education Thursday night that the education of the youngsters in the district faces a crucial issue...money. He stated that something must be done immediately, and the place to start was telling the facts to the parents and taxpayers of the district.

Scholle said that if a December referendum does not pass, the district will be forced to do one of two things:

- Issue script and refunding bonds which correspondingly reduce the district's ability to build new facilities; or - Close the school March 1, until next year's tax money is received by the school to enable them to finish this year.

Scholle stated that the two major problems are student enrollment and financing. Official sixth day attendance figures shows an enrollment of 3869 students, representing 1168 students more than capacity. In order to handle the overload this year, the district has established a modified shift at West and a transfer of 200 students from East to Central for half a day.

Scholle said, "Next year, the enrollment will increase again by 450 students as well as the year after, and after, and after." He said the students are already in elementary schools within the district and he feels by September of 1974, they will have over 6,000 students, based on today's district population. Any new construction, such as Bolingbrook, will provide additional students, according to Scholle.

The additional students require more teachers and equipment, with the end result - more dollars. At the time, the cost of everything has been going up.

"In 1963 District 205 had more students than dollars and was forced to borrow money in the form of Tax Anticipation Warrants to complete the year. Each year the problem of dollars has increased, and last year, 1968-69, we borrowed our limit, $1,410,000, and still could not finish the year."

Scholle continued, "Bills were not paid until after the first of July when the next year's tax money was received. Maybe you recall last summer when payroll checks were held up because of lack of funds."

"On June 30, 1969, we already had borrowed the limit and were still short about $600,000." He further said, "This school year we are short another $600,000 additional plus the increased cost of more students. We will need $1,700,000 more than we can borrow in order to finish the year, thus we cannot hope to pay all our bills."

If a December referendum passes, the district hopes to borrow enough money through additional Tax Anticipation Warrants to finish the year. Without the passage of the referendum, Scholle said there is no choice but to drastically reduce the educational program next school year.

The superintendent concluded with, "The last seven years tell the story. Our tax base and corresponding revenue have increased 50 per cent, but our enrollment has increased 100 per cent. Since the spring referendum of 1967 we have expressed the district's need for more funds for more students. We have now reached the point of no return. Without a "YES" vote referendum the education of our youngsters will suffer many years into the future."

Following Scholle's presentation, board member Felix Borio announced that the referendum will be held December 16, with the same polling places used in former elections, from noon to 9 p.m.

Lewis Grad Given Post

LOCKPORT -- James E. Schuster has joined the extension staff as Cook County Assistant Extension Adviser in Horticulture at the University of Illinois.

Schuster was born and reared in Joliet, and received his primary and secondary school training in Joliet. He attended Lewis College, Lockport; University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska and the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign campus.

City Outlaws Air Rifles

FRANKFORT - In response to complaints about damage done by boys armed with air rifles, and the request of the police department, the Frankfort village board has adopted an ordinance restricting their use.

The ordinance defines "air rifle" as "any air gun, air pistol, spring gun, spring pistol B B gun, pellet gun, or any instrument not a firearm which impels a pellet of hard plastic, steel, lead or other hard material with a force that reasonably is expected to cause bodily harm."

No one under 18 years of age, unless accompanied by a person 18 years of age or older, is allowed to carry an air rifle about the streets unless the weapon is dismantled or encased.

Air rifles may not be discharged within the village limits except in an enclosed area, such as a basement or other structure with four walls and a ceiling and so constructed as to prevent escape of the pellets discharged.

Violators of this ordinance, upon conviction, can be fined from $5 to $100.

MRS. CATHERINE GERHARZ, seated at right, managed the Gerharz Home Furnishings store for many years. Recently, the business has been acquired by long-time employee Ed Tasharski, standing at center. He and his wife Jessie, seated left, will continue the business and its traditions of quality and service.

Mrs. Gerharz Takes It Easy In 92d Year

LEMONT -- Mrs. Catherine Gerharz is taking it easy now after having spent more than 50 of her 92 years actively running a furniture business at 226 Main St.

Ed and Jessie Tasharski have assumed ownership of the Gerharz Home Furnishings store and will continue the business, which was established in 1862.

Mrs. Gerharz is widely known throughout the area, and is known to most now as Grandma. "Everybody calls me 'Grandma,' more or less," she said last week during a visit to the store.

She's up and around now following a brief illness last spring. Until that time, she was active in the management of the store. Ed Tasharski, a long-time employee, recently became owner and is being assisted by his wife Jessie. Ed also will continue to be associated with the Gerharz Funeral Home.

Mrs. Gerharz, herself and through her husband's family, can trace a family line to the very founding years of Lemont.

Her husband was the late Henry. His father, Joseph, came in 1833 and opened the furniture business in 1862 in the building that is part of the store to this day.

Henry, Mrs. Gerharz said, learned carpenter skills from his father. Henry also became one of the first 100 licensed embalmers in the state. "His number was 91," Mrs. Gerharz quickly recalled.

The furniture business gradually evolved from the made-on-the premises stage in the time of Henry's father, known as "Carpenter Joe." Henry as a boy helped along with a regular work crew of a dozen and a half men in the back of the store. Mattresses, coffins and all kinds of furniture were made there.

As the years went by, local manufacture of furniture bowed to manufacture from bigger companies elsewhere.

Mrs. Gerharz, who has a quick, sharp mind and a vivid recollection of detail, told how things were at the turn of the century. "There were no outside toilets, and no gas or electricity. Inside the store, there were hooks along the ceiling and we used to hang small rocking chairs from the ceiling.

"There were double doors on the store, but later we made one entrance and took the porch down. There was no paved street."

Funerals were also conducted at the furniture store until the time when a separate funeral home was established on State St.

"Whenever we had a funeral, we covered the windows and moved the furniture. We had panels, too," Mrs. Gerharz related.

At the time she was a girl, Mrs. Gerharz said, her husband "used to get under the mattresses they would make in the back of the store. His mother would stick a needle through the tuft, and he would push it back up."

Catherine and Henry married in 1903. They had known each other for many years, starting when they were children here in Lemont. In her teens, Mrs. Gerharz said, she went to Chicago to work.

She was employed in the lace department at Marshall Field and Co. when she married. Eight years earlier at 16 she was a clerk in a grocery store her father owned a few doors west of the furniture store, and first met Henry there.

Sunday was the day to visit, before they were married. "That guy used to be up there at 8 a.m. He rode up there on his bicycle," she said with a smile.

The couple came to Lemont to live. The first 11 years together were on Illinois St., then for 40 years in an apartment over the Main St. furniture store. Mrs. Gerharz now lives at 501 State St. Her husband died in 1939, while the family still lived above the store. At about that time, the funeral business was moved. Mrs. Gerharz took the responsibility of running the furniture store.

In her more active years, Mrs. Gerharz claims work at the furniture store was "a hobby." She was saleslady, bookkeeper and "everything else" in the store and "really enjoyed it."

That was after seven children were born. Six -- Bob, George, Helen, Catharine, Elizabeth and Urban -- survive and have children, who in turn are now raising their own families.

Mrs. Gerharz will be 93 on Nov. 16 and she said she will not make much of the occasion. Maybe she will on her 100th. For those younger, her advice is to stay young "by taking advantage of a little good time."

THE ORIGINAL building for the Gerharz Furniture Store, parts of which are still in use through many remodelings, still stands on Main St. in Lemont. In this 1800's photo, "Carpenter Joe" and his wife pose in front of one of two doorways that were later removed and replaced with windows.

Referendum Asking 70-Cent Tax Hike

LINCOLN ESTATES -- A special referendum has been scheduled for next Tuesday, Nov. 4, by the Ann Rutledge grade school district No. 56-C on two tax rate proposals.

The board says it needs more revenue for the educational fund and the building fund.

The present educational fund rate is $1.32 and the board is asking that it be increased 40 cents to $1.72 per $100 of equalized assessed valuation.

The building fund rate is now 25 cents. The board is asking that it be increased to 35 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation.

The educational fund is used to pay teachers and buy supplies and equipment for educational purposes. The building fund is used for maintenance and repair of the school plant.

Ann Rutledge School, on 80th Ave., will serve as the polling place. The polls will be open from noon to 7 p.m.

Next week's referendum is being held under a new law that was enacted by the legislature this year. Under this law a grade or high school district can ask approval of any increase in the educational fund tax rate up to the maximum limit of $3 per $100 equalized assessed valuation. Before this law was enacted the maximum raise in this rate that could be voted on in a referendum was 21 cents. To acquire a 40 cent increase in the tax rate would have required two elections.

Also under the old law the maximum building fund tax rate was 25 cents per $100 valuation. Under the new law it can be raised to 55 cents.

A 35 cent rate could increase the extendible amount of taxes for the building fund from $827.42 to approximately $9,558.39, according to figures released by the board while the raise in the educational fund rate to $1.72 would produce about $42,972.70 instead of the approximate $36,048. the $1.32 rate brings in.

George Tate, Town Supervisor, Is Dead

FRANKFORT -- Memorial services were conducted Tuesday night in St. Peter's United Church of Christ for George J. Tate, 61, supervisor of Frankfort Township, who died last Saturday following a sudden illness.

Mr. Tate, who resided at 315 Franklin Ave., was stricken at his home last Thursday morning shortly after he had awakened. He was taken to Silver Cross Hospital where he died Oct. 25.

A native of Chicago, he had been a resident of Frankfort for the past 21 years. He succeeded the late William Kampe as supervisor in 1960 and had been a member of the Will County board since. He had formerly served on the Frankfort grade school board.

He was a director of the Frankfort State Bank, a member of Community Lodge 1005, A.F. & A.M., Chicago, and of St. Peter's Church.

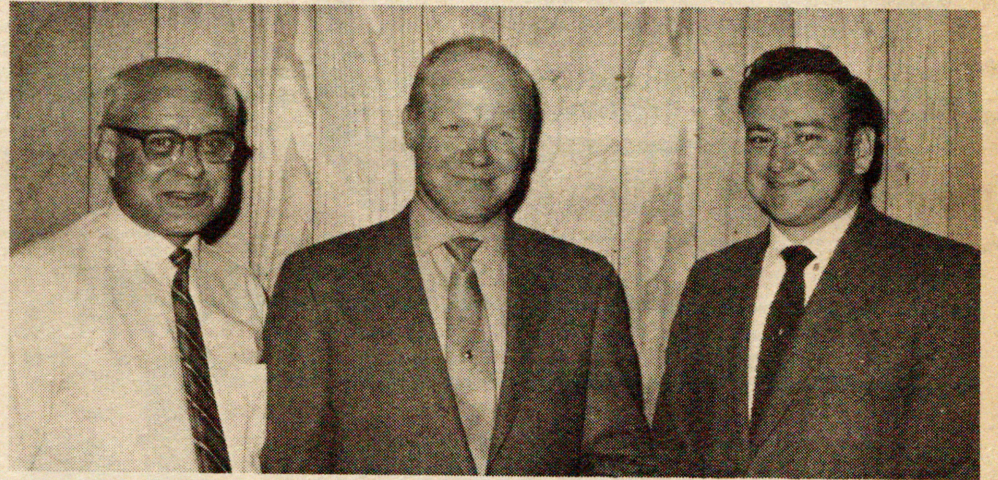

Besides his wife, the former Betty Roesner, to whom he was married April 9, 1931, Mr. Tate is survived by two sons, George Jr., of Minneapolis, Minn., and Michael, of Houston, Tex.; three sisters, Mrs. Sylvia Andersen, Miss Marie Tate of Chicago, and Mrs. Estelle Markstrom, of Emily, Minn.; one brother, Frank, Chicago, and three grandchildren.

James Tilsy, of Mokena, assistant supervisor, will take over the duties of Mr. Tate's office. Later the town board will appoint someone to Mr. Tate's place. The appointee will serve until the next township election.

Mr. Tate was a member of the good roads and judiciary committees on the county board and chairman of the right of way and legislative committees and the committee to settle with the county treasurer. Last week in a conversation at Mokena he said that the job of getting the right of way to finish Laraway Rd. was practically completed.

LEMONT LIONS CLUB recently heard a talk on "Drug Abuse By Youth" given by Sgt. Bob Erickson, director of the Youth Division, Cook County Sheriff's Police. A film accompanied the program which was under the direction of Harry Witkoski and Fred Werzler Jr. shown here flanking the speaker of the evening.

Seeking Distress Day Pay

LOCKPORT -- Phillip Polley, chairman of the LTO Welfare Committee read the following statement at Thursday night's District 205 board meeting:

"On behalf of the faculty of District 205, I ask the board to reinstate the pay that was withheld from teachers' paychecks on October 10, 1969, unless it can show just cause on an individual basis.

"Some teachers were in the hospital on the day for which you have refused them pay. For these and others who were unjustly deprived of their earnings, I urge the board to consider this request."

Frank Lynch, board member, asked Mr. Polley if "the board, in the past, had ever refused to pay a teacher absent because of illness."

Mr. Polley said he thought that they had paid them, unless the teacher's absence was extended beyond his eligible sick days.

Lynch then asked Polley why he thought they had not been paid this time. Polley answered that he didn't know, but that 50 teachers had called and explained that their absence was due to illness.

Lynch explained that in normal circumstances, the board knows if an individual is ill, but when the teachers staged their walkout, it was difficult to determine how many were really ill.

William Brill, president of the board then asked Polley if the teachers had not received a communication from the superintendent prior to the "distress day," stating that teachers who did not report for work on the "distress day" would not be paid for that day. Polley said that they had.

Felix Borio, also a board member, said that if an individual was really ill, he should be paid.

William Brill told the Southwest Graphic on Friday that the decision to deduct a day's pay had been made by the board. He further stated that the payroll had already been made up when the teachers walked out, and thus the deductions were reflected in their Oct. 10 paycheck. A tentative agreement has been made to the effect that the teachers will be paid when the day is made up. "This way, none of the teachers would lose a distress day."

Harold Scholle, District 205 superintendent, also contacted by this office on Friday, said, "Mr. Polley and I have discussed this item with the federal mediator and I am under the impression that it will be a topic of future discussion."

6 Seats Open In Election

LEMONT -- Six new directors will be elected to the board of the Lemont Chamber of Commerce Nov. 3. There are 15 members of the board, though only six terms expire at this time.

Directors whose terms are expiring are Walter Slaboszewski, Lemont 5 and 10-cent Store; Ed Krass, Lemont Bakery; and Dale Strand, The Strand. These men are not running for another term.

Directors whose terms are expiring and who are running for directors' posts are John Kickels, Continental Distilling Sales Co.; Harry (Bodie) Laubhan, D and M Motors, and Cas Prybysz, Lemont Jewelers.

Awards Made

LEMONT -- The White Eagle Social Club, meeting Oct. 25 was entertained in the clubrooms by Peter Hrebel.

Prize winners are Mike Sniagowski, 3 W. Custer; Pat Heeg, Romeoville; Jane Ann Ghglin, 12125 Hillcrest.

Student Firemen Praised For Holding Blaze Back

LOCKPORT -- Perry Buckley 19, a member of the student fire department at Lewis College, was overcome by smoke while fighting the fire at the Lewis College Library. He was taken to Silver Cross Hospital for observation, after passing out in a dormitory. A spokesman for the hospital told the Southwest Graphic Monday morning that Buckley had been discharged.

Lockport Fire Chief Carl Munson said, "The College Fire Department did a fine job holding the line until our department reached the scene." An alarm was called in to the Lockport department at 4:06 p.m. Thursday, (Oct. 24). They found the front of the building engulfed in flames.

The fire, which is the third to hit the College in a week, caused an estimated $75,000 damage to the buildings and furnishings. In addition, 10,000 books were destroyed or damaged. The first fire, which occurred Friday, Oct. 17, caused $17,000 damage in the administration building.

Munson said the state fire marshal's office and the Illinois crime lab were investigating the fire. A couch which appeared to be saturated with flammable liquid was turned over to the crime lab for analysis.

According to Lt. Robert Miller, of the Lockport Police Department, he and two members of the fire marshal's office spent Friday at Lewis, collecting samples to be sent to the crime lab. Their report is due sometime Monday, (Oct. 27). Lt. Miller told the Southwest Graphic early Monday morning that they had not reported as yet.

Two other student firefighters suffered hand burns, but did not require hospital treatment.

Seeking Names

LEMONT -- The Lemont Lions Club is requesting the names and addresses of anyone living in the Lemont High School District who is presently serving in Vietnam.

The club would like to send Christmas packages to the servicemen. All names should be sent to Glen McAdam Jr., Rt. 2, Lemont, Ill. 60439.

LEMONT -- A service and demonstration center for gifted children has been established in Elementary School District 96.

Announcement of the formation was made by Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction. The center is in operation during the 1969-70 school year. The district has been awarded a contract for $49,866.66 for conducting the program.

Service and demonstration centers, operated under the auspices of the Department of Program Development for Gifted Children, Division of Special Education Services, serve the schools of a given area by providing convincing and readily accessible demonstrations of one of a number of approaches to the education of gifted and talented children.

Aid Gifted Pupils

Mrs. Annette Moore was designated as director of the special program. The project will feature individualized learning in language arts and an inquiry approach to science and social science. All programs are demonstrated on the fourth, fifth and sixth grade levels.

Another interesting aspect of the program, according to Mrs. Moore, is the opportunity that interested schools have to utilize the service and demonstration director and staff as visiting consultants in developing programs for gifted children in their home school districts.

By providing these exemplary services to area schools, the service and demonstration center will make contributions toward the growth and development of more programs of education for all pupils.

LOCKPORT - The Lockport City Council has approved the comprehensive master plan for Lockport, prepared by Tec-Search, and has ordered 150 extra copies of the plan at a cost of 900. One hundred and fifty copies are included in the original contractual agreement; however, the council agreed that more copies would be needed, in order to provide them for members of various governing bodies within the city, and still be able to maintain a backlog. Mayor Nordstrom stated that copies would be distributed "prudently." It was pointed out that other cities have found themselves without any copies at all. Several copies will be on file at the Lockport Township Library for public viewing. If any member of the public is interested in purchasing a copy of the plan, it will be available at a cost of $6.

In other business the council:

-Heard a report from two representatives of Commonwealth Edison, who appeared at the council's request to explain installation procedures and costs involved in the underground placement of their utilities. They explained that the Edison Co. will provide an "underground" plan for developers, but that there is a charge for this service. A representative of Illinois Bell Telephone has been invited to the next council meeting to outline his company's cost schedule for underground service.

-Discussed the parking problems resulting from cars owned by students at Lockport Central High School. The students' cars parked near the school are creating a traffic hazard. Police Chief Robert Gait, Mayor George Nordstrom, Gordon McCluskey, and Gene Korst, the city attorney, plan to meet with the school's student council to see if this problem can be worked out. The aldermen would prefer that the students park at the athletic field.

-Heard a letter from the War Mothers stating that their group had received 563.23 in donations on Poppy Day. They thanked the council for allowing them to solicit donations and said that next year they would hold Poppy Day in September so as not to conflict with the Lions Club Candy Day.

-Granted permission for Lockport Central-East band to have a Cupcake Day on Oct. 24 and 25.

-Passed a resolution endorsing a proposed overall study of the Fairmont area, by the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission. The feasibility study would include housing, public health transportation, recreation, and land use. Funds for this project will be obtained by a federal grant.

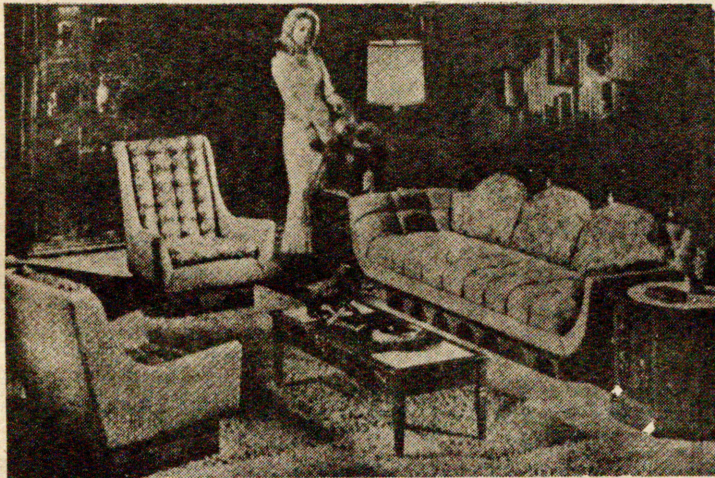

-Mayor Nordstrom proclaimed the week of Oct. 19-25 as National Business and Professional Women's Week.

The Billings Silver Medal went to Dr. Allen P. Joslin of the Joslin Clinic, Boston, for his work with a ruby laser beam in treating eye hemorrhages in diabetics. The beam has produced about 70 per cent improvement in vision, he reports.

ALLERGY CULPRITS: Dr. William C. Grater of

Dallas, working with various forms of occupational skin diseases, warns that drug allergies and food additive allergies comprise the largest segment of his practice.

NEW HEART DRUG: According to Dr. Lawrence Gould of the Bronx Hospital, New York, a derivative of the Mediterranean herb squill is an effective, safe, and reliable treatment in congestive heart failure. The derivative is called proscillaridin.

PURE OXYGEN DANGER: The practice of administering 100 per cent oxygen in acute heart attacks may result in lung damage, Dr. Roque Pifarre of Loyola University's Stritch School of Medicine warns.

Poison-Squitter

The spitting cobra of Malaya can squirt poison directly at the eyes of its victim. The venom may cause blindness if not washed out immediately. The squirted venom harms only the eyes, but the bite of a cobra may cause death within a few hours.

The Junior Scientist

A Long Story Longer

Copyright 1969, World Book Science Service

How long ago did man make his first appearance?

The answer to that question seems to depend on who you ask and how recently you checked. As work continues in the field and as dating techniques are improved, scientists are finding older and older traces of our ancestors.

Until about 15 years ago, the earliest evidence of man dated back about 600,000 years. Then Louis S. B. Leakey discovered man-like fossil remains that were nearly two million years old.

Recently, a team of scientists opened a new chapter in the story of man. They found nearly 40 man-like teeth and two lower jaws in Southern Ethiopia. Analysis of the minerals in nearby soil indicated that the fossils are at least three million, and possibly even four million years old!

So far, the scientists have found no evidence of stone tool-making with these fossils. Such tools have been used in the past as an indication that the creatures were more man-like than ape-like. The theory has been that when ape-like creatures started to walk upright, their hands were freed and they became more man-like. Until their hands were free, they couldn't develop tools. So tools became an important man-like characteristic. But some anthropologists are now questioning that whole theory.

The debate and the research will go on. This is yet another area of science that is full of mysteries and surprises.

Here's a mystery for you to solve: Can you find eight ways in which the picture on the right differs from the picture on the left?

ANSWERS: In the picture on the right: (1) the background is darker to the left of the man standing up; (2) his garment is lower; (3) he is holding a tool; (4) his face has a different shape; (5) the garment crease is longer on the lap of the man sitting to the right;

(6) the bowl in the foreground has fewer shadows on it; (7) the man sitting to the left is not holding anything; and (8) the shading behind him is lighter.

New School Tax Laws

The last session of the Illinois legislature is bringing Christmas early this year to some school districts. Signed into law, and operating so that any rate increases obtained now by a district can be collected next spring by amending the levy and appropriation ordinances, the only thing standing now between a property owner and a whopping tax increase could be a thin paper ballot.

Under the new law the minimum tax rate for a school district: high school or elementary, is 92 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation. For a community unit district the minimum is $1.60. Districts whose rates were lower than these minimums can put them into effect without a referendum.

Under the old law increases in the educational fund tax rate were limited to 21 cents per referendum. Under the new law the maximum limit has been raised to $3 per $100 equalized assessed valuation for single districts and $4 for a community unit, for the educational fund. And if the voters approve it a district could go from the minimum, or its present educational rate, to the maximum in one jump.

The building fund rate, formerly limited to 25 cents per $100 equalized valuation, can be raised now to 55 cents with voter approval.

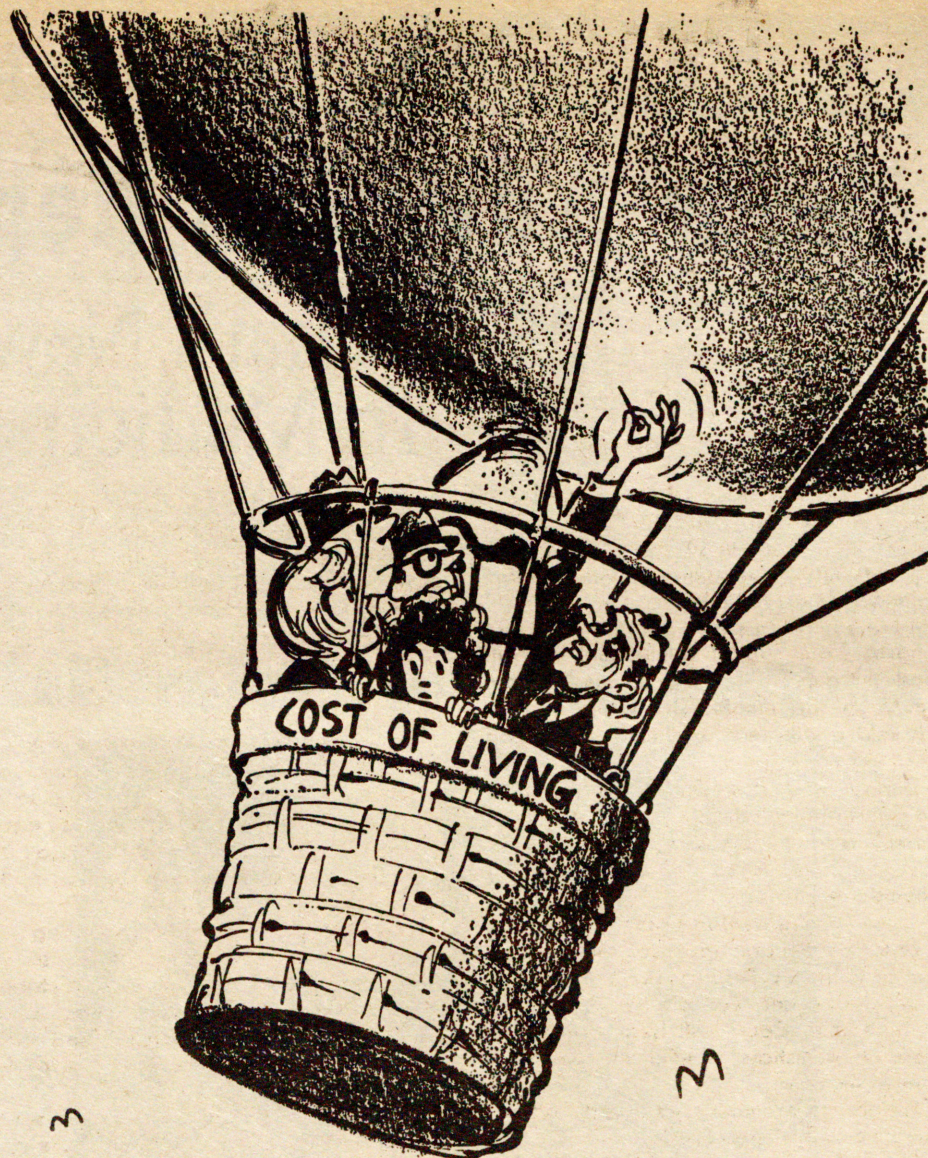

It is not likely that a district would attempt to attain the maximum level for its educational fund in one fell swoop. That is because it is unlikely any taxpayer in his right mind would vote such a hike in his taxes. He will be asked, however, to approve increases in excess of the former 21-cent limit.

The legislature has also given high school districts (and units), not part of a junior college district, a blank check for meeting tuition charges. Under the law, setting up junior college districts, the people backing the move to supply everyone in Illinois a college education (if he wants one), succeeded in getting the legislators to provide them with a club to beat down any resistance to joining a junior college district. If a high school district does not belong to a junior college district it must pay the tuition charges for all of its residents who enroll in a junior college. Under the original law such high school district could levy a tax of three cents per $100 equalized valuation to pay the tuition bill. If the 3-cent tax was insufficient to meet the charges then the high school district was obliged to pay the deficiency out of its educational fund.

This was a ridiculous law, in making one taxing body support another. A high school district could go broke to keep a junior college district running. But no one ever challenged the law in court.

Now there will be no need for a high school district to spend its educational fund money to pay tuition to junior colleges. The last session of the general assembly took care of the situation nicely. A high school district stuck with junior college tuition charges may now levy for any amount needed, and without a referendum. The sky is the limit!

It is hoped that school boards will use restraint in asking the public for more money, and they should -- for after all school boards are made up of members who in most instances are taxpayers too.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

Our thanks to you for your help in publicizing our 1969 Candy Day Campaign. This was a potent factor in carrying us over the top of our $600,000 goal on this past October 10. Your support in alerting the public to the program, played an essential part in its success.

Within recent years the Candy Day program has focused on five official state projects: Hadley School for the Blind, Leader Dogs for the Blind, Dialogue, a recorded service for the blind, Illinois Camp Lions for Visually Handicapped Children, Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Along with these, Candy Day funds are directed to a host of community services and activities for the sightless.

Many thousands of men and women work together to make Candy Day a growing success. Each year contributions are larger than the year before. Your help in "passing the word" on Candy Day is a major force in this steady growth.

Whenever you find a visually handicapped person needing assistance, please let us know so we may guide him to the proper source of help.

Thank you for helping us help the blind.

Most sincerely,

Has it ever occurred to you that in our social system the politician is enabled to reach a position of responsibility without having any training? He serves no apprenticeship. He masters no course of study. He need pass no examination as to his ability . . . The veterinary who doctors our dogs and cats is required to show more careful preparation for his calling than is the politician who seeks to assume the right to direct not only our industrial but much of our personal life.

HALLOWEEN PUMPKINS herald the season of trick or treat. Many of these great orange colored pumpkins will be cared, with varied degrees of artistic talent, to greet visitors to homes in the Southwest Graphic area. Some will decorate party tables and others will

This is the beautiful time of year for this part of the world. By mid-October Dame Nature has everything pretty well under control. By then rains have usually washed away the dust of early September, and rinsed the sky and clouds so they are a fresh blue and softly white.

John R. Frost--more familiarly hailed as Jack--has gotten out his paints and has started mixing them preparatory to launching his annual labor of tinting the leaves of trees and vines. Sometimes he tries out a few combinations in late September but it is usually well into October before his real work begins.

Sometimes it is difficult to distinguish September from August and one doesn't know whether to think of summer or fall but mid-October is different. There are days when the sun is warm but summer is definitely gone. There are days when it is quite chilly but it is definitely not

Desegregation On High Court Docket

ISSUES FROM EVERY STATE

Copyright 1969, By Congressional Quarterly, Inc.

WASHINGTON -- A docket filled with issues from every state is before the Supreme Court, which convened Oct. 6 to begin its 180th year.

The Court is headed by a new Chief Justice, Warren Earl Burger, Chief Justice Burger was sworn in by former Chief Justice Earl Warren on June 23, the last day of the October 1968 term.

Twenty-nine cases -- concerning issues ranging from capital punishment to railroad mergers -- is being argued before the Court this month. The Court already has said it will hear arguments on a long list of other cases.

During the first weeks of the new term the Court also will decide whether to review the ruling of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals that delayed desegregation of schools in Mississippi.

Eight-Man Court

Until the Senate approves the nomination of Clement Furman Haynesworth Jr. to fill the vacant seat left by Abe Fortas, an eight-man Court will hear arguments. Those eight Justices could divide evenly on some of the cases.

In such cases the Court usually affirms the ruling of the lower court.

Chief Justice Burger and Haynesworth are considered more conservative than the men they succeed. The impact of their views is expected to most evident in cases concerning criminal procedure, labor-management disputes and civil rights.

First Arguments

The first cases to be heard by the Court include:

Capital Punishment. It is unconstitutional for a jury to decide a defendant's guilt and punishment simultaneously? William Maxwell, condemned to death in Arkansas, contends that it is. The lives of almost 500 men on death row may depend on the court's decision.

Juvenile Rights. Is it constitutional for a juvenile court to deny a 17-year-old charged with forgery his right to a jury trial? Clarence DeBacker, convicted without a jury trial in Nebraska, asks the Court to hold that this is not constitutional.

Electronic Eavesdropping. Is it merely misplaced confidence or an invasion of privacy when evidence is obtained against one person by an electronic eavesdropping device carried by a person with whom he talks? The Government says it is the former, but the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals disagreed and overturned a conviction based on such evidence.

Self-Incrimination. Two cases to be argued in the term attack parts of federal narcotics laws as violating the 5th Amendment privilege against self-incrimination. A third case concerning federal wagering tax laws recently declared unconstitutional, raises the question of whether a man can be prosecuted for falsely answering an unconstitutional question.

Railroads. The Supreme Court will decide the fate of one of the largest railroad mergers in history when it resolves the conflict between Interstate Commerce Commission approval of and Justice Department opposition to the proposed north-east lines merger.

Free Speech. State laws restricting free speech are at issue in four cases set for argument. Illinois and New York statutes are attacked as unconstitutional. Lower court decisions declaring Texas and California laws unconstitutional are appealed by law enforcement officers.

Civil Rights. All-white juries and school boards in Georgia and Alabama are challenged by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Georgia's procedure for selecting jurors, members of jury commissions and school boards is attacked as violating the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments.

Alabama laws stating requirements for jurors also are attacked as providing an opportunity for racial discrimination.

Other Issues

Later in the term the Court will decide cases involving the legality of the Selective Service policy of inducting men who protest the war in Vietnam, the right of the welfare recipient to notice and opportunity for a hearing before welfare assistance is terminated and the constitutionality of residence requirements for voting in presidential elections.

Other questions that will be posed before the Court include definition of double jeopardy, state aid to churches and church-related schools, cigarette advertising obligations and private clubs and racial discrimination.

How To Avoid Lease Pitfalls

BEFORE YOU SIGN ON DOTTED LINE, YOU SHOULD REVIEW THESE 12 TIPS

SOUTHWEST -- Apartment housing is in demand these days and there is a continuing crush of anxious persons seeking to become tenants and occupy vacant units.

But before you sign on the dotted line and take occupancy, take a moment to review these tips on apartment leases.

1. To Begin With: Make sure you have a lease for your apartment -- it protects your rights as well as your landlord's by spelling them out in black and white.

2. Read the Fine Print: Most people sign leases without ever reading them -- a reputable landlord will want you to take a few minutes understanding your responsibilities.

Almost all leases are printed forms approved by local associations of realtors. If yours is typed or hand-written, read it very carefully. If you're concerned, see your lawyer for a clear interpretation of your rights.

3. Short or Long-term Lease: How long is your lease? One year, two years? If you plan to stay several years, the short-term lease could mean a raise in rent at its termination. Also remember that if you plan to stay you'll want an "option to renew" written into the lease. If you're single and you think you might not stay, the long-term lease could mean some inconvenience in sub-letting.

4. Sharing an Apartment: If you're sharing your new home, make sure the other party also signs the lease to share equal responsibility. This policy should also apply to all major time-payment purchases you may make for the apartment, such as furniture, stereo, carpet.

5. Sub-Letting: Check your sub-letting clause. Know what your responsibilities are, how much money you may have to pay.

6. Security Deposit: Is a security deposit to cover possible damage required? How much is it, and, if you sub-let, when do you get it back?

7. Decorating: Is your apartment newly-decorated? If not, will the landlord do the job or cover the cost of materials and labor or give you an allowance in rent deduction? Will the apartment be decorated at the termination of every lease period?

8. What Does Your Rent Include? Water, heat, gas, electric? If electric is included, how much more each month will an addition of an air conditioner cost? Remember -- to check with the landlord before installing any appliances that may affect the apartment's existing electrical load. If there's an individual gas heating unit in the apartment, how much does it cost each month?

9. Maintenance: It's rarely covered in your lease, so remember to check faucets, locks, windows, shades, outlets, lights, switches. It's easier -- and much more pleasant -- to move into a new home where everything is working right, rather than sit cold, cursing the dark to a symphony of dripping faucets.

10. Pets and Children: Many apartments are not fond of small children and most pets, although caged birds and cats are commonly overlooked. It's better to check first, rather than to have Rover announce his presence -- and your departure from the apartment. For example: North Eastwood Shores, under the terms of the federal financing, cannot prohibit renting to parents of children, but it is possible to prohibit pets, not only for the protection of the property, but for the comfort -- and peace of mind -- of the non-pet-owning tenants.

11. Business: If you plan to use your apartment for business, teaching piano, for example, check the lease for specified use of the apartment, as well as local zoning laws.

12. Palace Dream -- Or Financial Nightmare: If you're renting an older apartment and are romantically inclined to the "it has great possibilities" theory, be realistic about the cost and labor necessary for your "palace." Sometimes the total cost of remodeling could put you in a new apartment with all the luxury extras for less money.

SWING SHIFT

By ED DECKER

As an addicted viewer of the "tube" and one of its most demanding critics I have become very opinionated. The phenomenon of this communication medium defies the imagination. From the buffoons of wrestling, roller derbies and all-night movies we have recently witnessed man's first steps on a planet other than earth.

From this most fantastic of all journeys we have also been subjected to less inspired moments in television history. Such talents as Jerry Lester, Sid Caesar, Red Buttons, Jan Murray, Milton Berle and others of equal ability have disappeared into the ozone of teevee oblivion.

Talent Scouts, 77 Sunset Strip, The $64 Question and Hit Parade have gone the way of yesterday's beef stew. Along with these charmers there was the one with the rodeo star who rode a horse with the air of a Rolls Royce chauffeur. And that gem which portrayed several individuals masquerading as private detectives adrift in limbo when they weren't tied to a dock in Miami.

Dr. Kildare and Vince Edwards have faded into the dim mists of television history. Their replacements, Marcus Welby, M.D., Medical Center, and Julia, are threads from the same cloth. Occasionally entertaining, but usually lacking originality, these shows probably will follow in the wake of their predecessors.

The effort by television to hand the public that oh-so-important message is apparent in many of the new shows. Bracken's World, The New People and The Survivors are prime examples of the type of not-so-violent shows foisted on a long-suffering public. The Survivors may survive, not because of quality, but through the use of "name" stars. The magic of Harold Robbins seems a bit thin in this series although there are moments of intrigue. The combination of Turner, Hamilton and Robbins is a parlay that probably will produce a winner.

The "message" shows include most of today's offerings. Bill Cosby and Room 222 send the message with a light touch that is refreshing. I, for one, tire of the hard-hitting bludgeon type of drama which is all too prevalent in contemporary entertainment.

In the way out category we find Mission Impossible. A show aimed at the armchair adventurer. This is one of the most entertaining of the carryovers from last season and surely one of the most popular. The plots are, for the most part, well researched and the gadgets used are enough to cause a mass nervous breakdown in the CIA.

Then Came Bronson employs a theme warming to the heart of many an American male. The wanderer not ensnared in the day-to-day responsibilities of family, home and job. This job will prob-

Art Interest Up In Lemont Library Area

LEMONT -- "During the last 20 years Americans have shown a steadily increasing interest in art and books written about art," according to Mrs. Helen Witt librarian of the Lemont Public Library.

"Not only are they interested in reading about great paintings, the lives of artists, and art appreciation, and in gaining knowledge about methods and techniques that will help them learn to paint and draw themselves, they are also interested in having the opportunity to hang some of the world famous paintings right in their own homes."

Librarian Witt stated that people no longer feel that art is something just for the person with special talents and abilities. They have learned that art is for everyone; that it can serve as a practical and functional part of everyone's life; that it helps develop powers of observation, and serves as an emotional outlet.

In order to encourage the interest in art, the Burr Oak Library System, in which the Lemont Library belongs, began a special collection of framed art prints in January, 1969.

Framed prints numbering 100, became available to any resident with a library card for a six week free loan. Due to an overwhelming popular response the collection has now grown to over 200 prints and still more are being added to meet the demand.

Art is older than civilization and man learned to paint long before he learned to read and write. Because art is for everyone, Mrs. Witt urges adults to become acquainted with the library's framed art print collection at their earliest opportunity.

There are also many books in the library about painting and the methods used in learning how to paint and draw. Three of these books were presented by the Lemont Art Guild, making a total of 17 books that the guild has purchased.

The library is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, from 12:30 to 5 p.m., Friday, 12:30 to 8:30 p.m., and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Closed Wednesday.

Your Work May Not Really Be Exercise

SOUTHWEST -- The mature woman who spends her day pushing a vacuum cleaner or pulling a shopping cart is entitled to think of herself as a "tired housewife," according to Sophia Delza, noted exercise expert.

"There is a theory that the housewife is exercising while she is executing household chores. I say she is working -- maybe even overworking -- but she is generally under-exercising," said Miss Delza.

A professional dancer and teacher of an ancient Chinese art of exercise and movement, Miss Delza is the author of the book "Feel Fine, Look Lovely," recently published by Hawthorn Books.

While she claims that walking, standing or running for trains is not exercise, she offers a shortcut to physical wellbeing with exercises that can be done in the bath, at the desk, or in the kitchen while dinner is being prepared. You can even do them at the kitchen sink.

Miss Delza, notes that exercise not only promotes physical health but emotional well-being. "Exercise is an organized series of movements that will not only stimulate the muscles and joints of the body, but the emotional aspects of the personality as well," she claims.

She recommends counteracting movements to combat tired muscles and joints. "If you do some exercise you already have an awareness of the body and you have the sense to feel: 'I ought to be doing something quite the opposite of this to counteract this work.'" As an example, she suggests that salesclerks, who are on their feet a good part of the day, periodically bend their knees in quick succession to loosen muscles, and stoop over often as if picking up an object from the floor. "Just standing on the legs is not exercise. It is overwork," she said.

Her exercises, designed to relax and refresh, help to limber and stretch tensed muscles and joints. They can be executed sitting down or standing before a mirror, and are geared to combat such problems as flabby underarms, sagging breasts, bulging abdomen, and facial lines.

For the housewife who wants to feel refreshed before the arrival of guests, Miss Delza suggests the following exercises, to be performed in the shower. "Let the water pour down on your lower back, then onto your shoulders, while you are warming your body with movement. Next, the hands should be rubbed 24 times, without soap, as if one were washing them."

After this, the right shoulder, then the left one should be rotated eight times each. Then the shoulders are rotated alternately, one going forward, up and back while the other is going back, forward and up. This action is performed 24 times. After this, while holding on to keep from slipping, bend the knees and bow the torso forward. The knees are bounced 24 times. Next, and again holding on, twist the torso right and left. Let the shoulders -- not the head -- get the impact of the running water.

Miss Delza also offers a variety of facial exercises which can be done before the bathroom mirror. In one, she suggests that women wiggle their noses as if attempting to suppress a sneeze. In another, the muscles of the face are worked by pretending to be chewing sticky candy and loosening it from both the teeth and tongue. In a third facial exercise, the face should be rested, the eyes lightly closed and, with the tip of the tongue on the upper teeth, simulate a Mona Lisa smile.

Miss Delza believes that exercise stimulates beauty. "I say that often people look lovely but they don't feel fine. But if you feel fine -- and I mean feeling really well -- then you always look lovely."

Ambitious Husband?

Dear Miss Brookfield:

My question concerns my husband. He works 12 and 13 hours a day, seven days a week. Although he is entitled to one, he hasn't taken a vacation in five years. I hardly ever see him and certainly don't understand his behavior. Do you think the fault is mine?

K.L., Cleveland, Tex.

Dear K.L.:

We can't say who is at fault in this situation. If your husband's work schedule isn't caused by financial burdens or unusual ambition, we are also at a loss to explain his behavior. On the other hand, there are people who can lose themselves in their work, oblivious to the passage of time. Have you tried talking this over with him? Perhaps that is the only way to get an answer to your question.

Remembering Names

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I have a terrible time remembering names, even a few minutes after being introduced to someone. About a year ago, my husband was promoted and, as a result, we now socialize a good deal with his fellow-executives and their wives. Yesterday I met the wife of one executive on the street and I was so embarrassed because I couldn't remember her name. Have you any helpful suggestions?

J.P., Boston, Mass.

Dear J.P.:

Yes, we do have some suggestions -- from the American Institute of Family Relations in Los Angeles -- for people who find it difficult to remember names. First, they advise that you not attempt to remember all the names of the new people you meet in a group setting. Choose one person who is distinctive, perhaps because of a pleasing voice or an unusual appearance. Following introductions, repeat this person's name: "How do you do, Mrs. Gregory." If you fail to hear the name distinctly, or if it can be spelled in several different ways, ask the person to repeat or spell the name. After you have been introduced, use this person's name as frequently as you naturally can during conversation. Let us know if it works.

Problem with Mother

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I am a 19-year-old with a mother who is, but doesn't act, mature. Every time I buy a dress, she rushes out and gets herself the exact same model. How can I tell my mother that these fashions are unsuitable for her and that I am sick and tired of seeing myself coming and going?

A.L., Concord, Calif.

Dear A.L.:

You might try getting her to remember her own teen-age years when she, too, was trying to find herself as an individual. Explain that while you love her, you don't want to be a carbon copy of her, even though there are traits and fashion tricks of hers that you would like to emulate.

LWC Has Luncheon Meeting

LOCKPORT -- The Lockport Woman's Club opened their fall season with a buffet luncheon and card party held at Silver Lake Country Club Friday, Oct. 17.

Mrs. Aldred Alfred Darin, president, welcomed the group and introduced Mrs. Armand Antonucci, Mrs. William Bornhofen, and Mrs. James Reif, all new members.

In other business the club:

- Accepted the resignations of Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. U. T. Duello, and Mrs. Robert Tierney.

- Accepted the nominating committee's report naming Mrs. Willard Anderson and Mrs. Robert Bryant to the board, replacing Mrs. U. T. Duello and Mrs. Francis Gleason, who resigned their board positions. Mrs. Anderson was elected secretary and Mrs. Bryant will serve as a member of the board of directors.

- Voted to establish two additional scholarships, for vocational students.

- Voted to establish a working fund of $500 to assist the Will County Historical Society in their renovation of the I & M Canal Building, as part of the club's civic improvement project.

- Pledged $150 to the Joliet Regional Hospital Drive, to be paid over a three-year period.

Following the meeting, the members and their guests enjoyed a card party.

Mothers To Hold Brunch At St. Pat's

LEMONT -- The St. Patrick's Mother's Club of Lemont, now three months old, will sponsor a continental breakfast and bake sale, Sunday, Nov. 9.

The breakfast will consist of a sweet roll, butter, juice, coffee, hot chocolate or milk, and will be 50c per person. It will be served continuously after all the masses on Sunday, Nov. 9, at both St. Alphonsus Church basement, located at 212 Custer St. and St. Patrick's School, 205 Cass St., also in the basement.

This is the first time a double-venture of this type has been held in the Lemont area and all area residents are invited to attend. Proceeds will be used for the purchase of school equipment.

Color Picks Are Best Bet For Sparkling Decor

SOUTHWEST -- "How can I give the living room a facelifting and make it look like a professional job?"

This is a question that a professional decorator can help with. Mary Kraft, decorating editor of a major women's magazine, has offered some answers.

Color contributes more for less money than anything else you can buy, says Miss Kraft. "You can buy it in a can and put it on yourself if necessary." For the first face-lifting change, therefore, try a new background color for your room.

Next consider the furniture. Miss Kraft suggests that you take everything out of the room and bring it back a piece at a time. You may arrange the pieces differently, and you'll probably decide the room looks better with fewer things in it. Most of us tend to crowd too much into our rooms. A few well-chosen pieces look best, she believes, while a lot of bad furniture is only conspicuous.

Accessories which you like but decide not to put back into the refurbished room can be stored and brought out to alternate with current pieces and thus provide another variation at a later date.

When storage is a problem, solve it with pieces which offer extra space in drawers or cabinet form. Even end tables can do double duty if you buy those designed to accommodate storage of table linens and similar hide-aways.

"Accessories always give a room a lift," adds Miss Kraft. "Pillows and plants, interesting lamps, family treasures, and books and magazines which have special personal meaning to your family all help to create new interest. And the wonderful part about them is that they can be changed frequently, and even moved from one room to another."

Crowded World Coming?

World population is growing about 2 per cent per year. Regional growth varies from less than 1 per cent for Europe to over 3 per cent for Latin America. Fastest growing country is Costa Rica where there are 6 births for every death.

How To Keep Drains Free

SOUTHWEST -- There is no reason to have plugged drains and clogged toilets, according to a plumbing dealers' information bureau.

Most stoppages can be avoided with a little care.

For example, if you pour a kettle of boiling water down the kitchen sink every day, this will help to keep the drain clear. Large food particles, coffee grounds and grease should never be washed down the drain.

In the bathroom, stoppages in the water closet are the most frequent problem. The water closet never should be used to dispose of trash. And if the lid is kept closed, the chances of anything falling in accidentally are lessened.

It's 14-6 As Lemont Stays In The Race

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT -- Lemont High School remains in contention for top Northeast Conference varsity football honors. The team came through with a 14-6 triumph over a determined Marseilles Club at the home field last Saturday afternoon.

This win enabled the Indians to keep abreast of Wilmington, each of whom now sport 5-1 readings in league competition. Lemont is 6-1 in the overall season category.

Neither Lemont or Marseilles could move with any degree of consistency during their initial series of downs, but the visiting Panthers started things moving when hard running Jack Cox rambled from his own 23 to Lemont 32, before John Schwer was able to make a touch-down saving tackle.

Senior tackle Rich Gendeman took care of this threat when he dropped Marseilles' quarterback Razo for a huge loss back to the local 45 yard stripe.

The following Marseilles punt was downed on the Indian 8 yard line, but Lemont "lightning" was just about ready to make a direct charge.

John Schwer picked up 5 yards in 1 burst. Quarterback Mike Hennebry then handed off to Mark (Fang) Sniegowski on a draw play. The Marseilles defense was completely fooled as the fast stepping Sniegowski rambled 87 yards for Lemont's initial score.

The Panthers were not to be outdone, for they retaliated with a 52 yard drive. Using a crunching ground attack as a basis, backs Spicer and Cox shared ball carrying roles before Cox went in for the score from 3 yards out, as the first period came to a close at 6-6.

The game winning drive began after Rich Hoffman had returned the second half kickoff 25 yards to the Lemont 46. Schwer and Sniegowski picked up 3 yards, but Hennebry then connected with end Dick Pierce for a first down on the Marseilles 43.

Sniegowski and Schwer rambled for 16 yards in 3 carries, and then once again Mike Hennebry found his target Dick Pierce open on the 15. The small of stature, but spirited running Schwer bucked to the 1 in 2 carries.

On the following play, John hit straight ahead to eat up the remaining distance. A successful Hennebry to Steve Pociask aerial gave Lemont an additional 2 point bulge at 14-6.

Marseilles' final bid came to an abrupt halt, when with only seconds remaining to be played, senior end Dennis Bubinas broke through to drop the Marseilles passer, whose resulting fumble was recovered by an alert Jesse Gonzales on the Panther 46. Two sneaks by Hennebry and it was all over.

Lemont presented a well balanced offense, moving on the ground for 181 yards, while quarterback Hennebry was connecting for 11 of 19 and a 132 yard total.

Marseilles matched our figure of 181 yards on the ground, but they found the air lanes clogged, and were able to pick up only 48 yards via this route.

Harriers Run For State Title

NEW LENOX -- Lincoln-Way High School will make its bid for the state cross country championship at Champaign this Saturday, Nov. 1, having earned its way into the competition by winning the district meet and placing second in the sectional.

Dave Merrick, a junior, who was the individual champion in the district and sectional will endeavor to be No. 1 in the state.

The Knights, under the teachings of Coach Joe Rodriguez, came out of the district meet with 16 points, an almost unbelievable score when one remembers there were 15 high schools competing.

Merrick was first, turning the course in 13:21.6. He was followed by Lee Erickson, Al Carlson and Capt.

Bill Been. East Aurora's Dave Mitchell got up to take fifth place, with Tom Booble, of Tinclon-Way finishing sixth, three seconds back of Mitchell.

Last Saturday the Knights went to Naperville for a crack at the sectional crown but had to be content with second place. Glenbard West, one of the schools Rodriguez figured as tough competition, took the sectional with 48 points. Lincoln-Way's team score was 54. Glenbard East was third with 83. The other scores, Benet Academy, Lisle, 109; Thornridge, 114; Aurora East 114; Homewood-Flossmoor, 169; Rich East, 198 and Aurora West, 244.

Merrick was the individual champion, covering the 2.75 mile course in 13:19.7.

Don Ellis, Glenbard, was second, Randy Bede, Glenbard East third, Jim Verchota, Glenbard West, fourth, and Barry Quilhot, Hillcrest, fifth.

The three top teams plus the top five individual finishers in the sectional will go to Champaign this weekend.

Lee Erickson finished sixth at Naperville, Al Carlson eighth, Been twelfth, and Booble 31st.

The Lincoln-Way team in the state meet will be made up Merrick, Erickson, Carlson, Been and Bobble.

Last year the Knights surprised everyone but themselves and their coach by placing thirds in the state meet. This year they want it all. But the competition will be stiff. In all there will be 24 teams in action.

Chicken To Central H.S.

LOCKPORT -- William Zimmer, Lockport Central coach and Willard Prynn, Central principal, have made their second trip to Lockport West, on a bicycle-built-for-two. Their early morning jaunt was the result of a standing bet between the two schools, which requires the coach and principal of the losing school to travel by bicycle to the winner's school. Central lost, 12 - 8. According to Prynn, their trip was interrupted several times; everytime the pair "coasted," the chain fell off the bike.

When they reached Lockport West, Bill Rutter, principal, presented them with the Traveling Chicken Award. The trophy, made last year by Mrs. John Stash of Lockport, replaces a succession of live chickens which have popped up from time to time in each of the schools about the time of the scheduled Central-West game.

Following the "chicken presentation," Prynn said, "I shall not return!"

Romeoville Teams Split

By J. AZARELA

ROMEoville -- The Romeoville Spartans' Homecoming got off to a poor start with the lightweight team losing to New Lenox 13-0.

The bitter taste of defeat was felt very sharply by the PeeWee's, who for the first time this year lost a game. New Lenox anticipated every play of the PeeWees and were able to avenge their loss earlier this year to Romeoville by the same score of 7 to 0. This second loss of the day cast a dark shadow over the Homecoming spirit.

New Lenox was not able to complete the washout against the Heavyweights and our boys saved the day by defeating them by a 12 to 0 score. Roger Jones completed both drives which resulted in touchdowns for the Spartans.

The very cold and windy weather did not hamper the tremendous passes by Rick Smolik which gave the Spartans good yardage throughout the game.

The Homecoming festivities began with the introduction of the Queen, Sharon Farmer, her court, Barb Blum and Dani Bergstrom and their escorts, Mike and Steve Kovalcik and Jim Boudouris. The West View Band completed the half time festival by giving an enjoyable performance.

Knights Fall To Vikings' Power

FLOSSMOOR -- That Minnesota club in the N.F.L. aren't the only tough Vikings in the football business. The Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor in the Southwest Suburban Conference are a pretty rugged outfit to and proved it last Saturday by blasting Lincoln-Way High School 47 to 6.

A couple of statistics tell the story fairly well -- Lincoln-Way made 78 yards rushing to 415 for the Vikings. The Knights also made 78 yards passing to 45 for the host team but the total yards gained by L-W only came to 156. The Vikings gained a total of 460 yards.

Homewood - Flossmoor had a strong defense and that coupled with a strong offense makes a combination that is hard to beat. The Flossmoors also had Allyn Corning, who went into the backfield about the end of the first quarter to replace Jim Spieth, who was taken out because of an ankle injury.

There wasn't anything wrong with Corning's ankles. He carried the ball 11 times for 230 yards. Corning scored three touchdowns, one on a 46-yard dash, one on a 71-yard gallop, and one on an 88 yard run.

The Vikings received the opening kickoff and nine plays later had a touchdown with Spieth carrying the ball over from 19 yards out. They missed on the extra point.

Rick Otis received for Lincoln-Way and ran the ball back 41 yards. Harold Webb, playing quarterback, hit Greg Palks with a 26-yard pass that brought the ball to the Viking 13. The Knights got it to the 11 but the Vikings held there and took over on downs.

The hosts then began a series of plays that gave them a touchdown shortly after the beginning of the second quarter. To begin with Spieth found a hole off tackle and went 36 yards. He also carried the ball to the five from the Knights 16 at the end of the quarter and that was when he hurt his ankle.

Three plays later Dean Armstrong went over for the TD and this time the kick was good. Before the quarter ended, however, the Vikings had the ball deep in their territory and gave it to Corning. This young man cut through tackle and then cut over to the sidelines for a 71-yard dash for paydirt. The kick was good and at the half the Vikings led 20 to 0.

On the first play the Vikings had the ball in the third quarter Corning repeated his maneuver, only this time he went 88 yards. The kick was good too.

The Knights scored in this quarter. John Minger was now at quarter and Webb was a running back. Minger tossed a 20-yard pass that Pat Yeager caught in the end zone, and it was 27 to 6.

But not for long. That Corning boy was off and running again but this time it was a short one, only a 46-yard run. In the last quarter Homewood - Flossmoor piled up 13 points more and the game ended with a count of 47 to 6.

This Saturday the Knights will be hosts to Evergreen Park. To date the Knights have lost all conference starts but one and that ended in a tie. Evergreen Park lost to Rich East last Saturday, 22 to 0. In other conference games Reavis beat Oak Lawn, 17 to 6 and Sandburg beat Bremen 21 to 7.

Spartans Break Tigers' String

By MIKE WARD

LOCKPORT -- A sparkling 68-yard punt return by Chuck Williams late in the third period of their Friday night game against the Tigers of Joliet West was the great equalizer in a 6-6 tie.

Williams' run wiped out a 6-0 lead by the Tigers and added a bit of inspiration to the already magnificent defensive play of the Spartans' unsung heroes. Although the Tigers rolled up 380 yards total offense compared with a total of 135 yards for the Spartans, the Lockport West defense was impregnable when the chips were down. On two occasions they held the mighty Tigers inside the 10-yard line.

Joliet West's long TD came in the waning moments of the first half on an eighty-yard dash by Brian Kendall. A run by Mark Hammond in an attempt for the two-point conversion was stopped cold.

The Spartans' John Highland displayed his usual superb general-ship in deploying his squad to best advantage. His passes were hard and accurate, but his receivers were unable to find the handle as has been the case in other games this season.

A Highland to Williams pass was in Williams' hands at the Tigers' 10-yard line and the ball slipped away. Despite these hard luck mis-cues, Highland completed 10 passes for 105 yards.

As is so often the case it was a momentary lapse in discipline that led to the Tigers' lone score. Lockport was on their own 35 with a fourth down and inches to go. The Spartans refused to punt and lined up in their attempt to gain the inches needed for the first down. A nervous Spartan lineman jumped the call and Lockport went into punt formation. The Tigers drive from their own 35-yard line was capped with the Kendall run for the TD.

Lockport failed to capitalize on a punt fumble by Joliet's Tom Dempsey late in the fourth quarter. Dale Durbin pounced on the loose ball giving the Spartans a golden opportunity.

Highland moved the ball to the Tigers' 22-yard line and fired a pass toward the goal line which picked off by the Tigers' John Egly. Egly returned the ball to the Joliet 44-yard line with less than one minute remaining in the game.

Joliet's man - of - the - game, Jim Huey tried for a field goal from the 17-yard line, but the kick fell short. Huey picked up 51 yards in six carries; pulled in three passes for 79 yards, and tossed a 48-yard bomb to Jim Luckey on the option.

Lockport West takes on the Joliet East Kingsmen next Friday night at Joliet. Joliet West battles St. Viator in a non-conference game the same night.

Frosh-Soph On Top 18-6

By RUSS SANDBERG

LEMONT -- A determined Lemont High Frosh-Soph football team swept by Marseilles to the tune of 18-6 last Saturday in a home game.

The "Little" Indians have now upped their overall season mark to 6-1. A Northeast Conference reading of 5-1 still keeps the locals very much in contention for at least a share of the crown.

A visiting Sandwich 11 still must be disposed of in the home curtain raiser on Saturday, Nov. 1. The yearlings of Coaches Bob Voss and Lou Kuk take over the field at 12 noon, with the varsity kickoff set for 2 p.m.

Lemont parlayed a sturdy defense, plus a fine all around team offensive effort, to achieve their win over Marseilles, but on an individual basis, the running of Jim Weck, plus the aerial duo of quarterback George Otto to end John Dunn, stood out.

Weck started things off. After a Marseilles punt had rolled dead on Lemont's 33, Jim promptly ate up the remaining 67 yards in one gulp.

Early in the second quarter, Lemont was on the move to touchdown number 2. This time the Injuns had a starting point at the Marseilles 49.

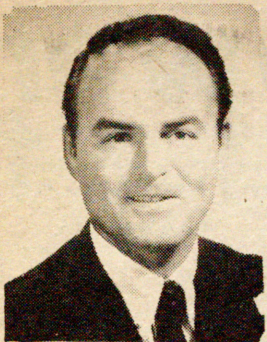

The running of Steve Barnett and Weck carried Lemont to the 24, from where George Otto connected with John Dunn for the score.

Neither conversion attempt was successful, and Lemont led 12-0 at halftime.

Another long distance dash by Jim Weck upped the ante to 18-0 early in the fourth stanza. On this occasion, Weck had a personal escort as he rambled 69 yards into the Panther end zone.

Marseilles got on the scoreboard on the final play of the game. They moved 63 yards for the tally, most of which was accomplished via the overhead route.

Aerials Snag Win

By DAN KUBAN

LOCKPORT -- A strong pass defense and the passing of Gil Fash gave the Lockport Central-East eleven a hard fought 14-7 victory over a winless Joliet East team.

The Kingsmen tallied first after recovery of a Porter fumble at the Joliet 10-yard line early in the second quarter. Tim Salonis picked up 12 yards to spark the drive which culminated in a Dave Musson pass to end Ray Nickel for the score. Alberto Pairin, a soccer-type kicker from Italy, booted the conversion giving the Kingsmen a 7-0 lead.

Later in the first half Tom Saunders filched a Musson aerial and returned the ball to the Porters 42-yard stripe. On the first play from scrimmage Fash connected on a 52-yard space probe to Will Merrell at the Joliet six-yard line. Joliet East's coaching staff disputed the validity of the play, contending that Fash had tossed his bomb after stepping across the line of scrimmage.

Tom Saunders hauled in another Fash pass from the six-yard line for the score. Another Fash-to-Saunders toss for the conversion gave the Porters an 8-7 lead.

Lockport's final tally was the result of an interception by Randy Yapp at the 48-yard marker of Joliet. In eight plays Fash led his men to paydirt with a scoring pass to Glenn Johnson. Fash's pass for the conversion was incomplete.

Fash had the Porters in scoring position late in the final period at the Kingsmen's 12. His pass to the end-zone was hauled in at the one-yard line by Salonis.

A 99 yard run to the Porters end zone for a TD was nullified as a result of a clipping penalty against the Kingsmen. The ball was put in play at Joliet's 35 and Joliet's scoring for the evening had come to an end.

Statistics for the game were close and reveal the quality of play throughout the game. Joliet East fought hard in seeking their first win of the 1969 season, but fell short.

The Kingsmen gained a total of 242 yards; 11 yards more than the Porters total of 231. Saunders and Johnson each picked up 42 yards for the Porters. Johnson caught three passes for his contribution and Saunders carried 19 times to grab the rushing lead for the Porters.

Passing accounted for 141 yards in seven completions out of 18 attempts by the Porters' Fash. Musson completed 10 of 19 passes for 157 yards for the Kingsmen.

The Porters' next game is at Lockport against the Peoria Woodruff eleven in a non-conference game Friday night. Joliet East hosts Lockport West Friday night in an 1-8 contest which is also the homecoming for the Kingsmen.

Hornets In 2 Victories

By DON HEEG

LEMONT -- The Lemont Golden Hornets stung the Glen Ellyn Golden Eagles Sunday by a score of 50-0. The previous Sunday, Oct. 19, the Hornets captured their fifth win by defeating the Crestwood Colts 28-14.

The Glen Ellyn contest started slow in the first period, with both teams playing a pretty even contest. Lemont put over their first score in the period on a 40 yard punt return by Rick Sniegowski, his first of 4 touchdowns for the day. First period ending with Lemont on top 6 to 0.

In the second quarter Lemont put over 3 more tallies, with Hayden Reeve scoring 2. The first was on a 40 yard pass interception. He also picked up the extra point. The second TD came on a 20 yard scamper around right end. Then quarterback Rick Sniegowski hit Ed Davis on a 35 yard pass play for the hornets fourth score. The score at half time was 25 to 0 Hornets on top.

In the third quarter things slowed down a little. But Lemont put over their fifth score, when Rick Sniegowski swept right end on a quarter back keeper covering 11 yards. His second touchdown of the day. Quarter ending with the score 31 to 0.

In the fourth quarter the Hornets started buzzing again. Jim Hutchinson went off right guard on a 61 yard run for the Hornets sixth score, with Dave Gorski picking up the extra point.

Then Rick Sniegowski went to work again picking up his third and fourth scores for the day. The first came on a 11 yard scamper around left end. The second came on a 39 yard run off a broken play. This ended the scoring for the day with a final score of 50 to 0.

The Pee Wee Hornets didn't do as good. They came out on the short end by the score of 25 to 6, with Lemont's only score coming on a run by Oscar Little.

Next week the Hornets travel to New Lenox for their final game of the season. The first game starts at 1 p.m.

On Sunday, Oct. 19, the Lemont Golden Hornets captured win no. 5 at the Lemont High School Field by defeating the Crestwood Colts by a score of 28 to 14.

The Hornets jumped off to an early lead with Rick Sniegowski scoring on 2 long running plays. With Jim Hutchinson picking up both points after, Lemont led 14 to 0 at the end of the first period.

In the second quarter both teams picked up a score. The Hornets' score came on a run by Hayden Reeves, with Jim Hutchinson picking up his third point. At half time the score stood at 21 to 7 Lemont on top.

The third period was a repeat of the second scoring wise. Both teams put over touchdowns. Lemont's came on an end sweep of 11 yards by Hayden Reeves. Jim Hutchinson picked up his fourth point.

The fourth quarter was a stand-off with neither team hitting paydirt. The game ended Hornets 28 - Colts 14.

The Pee Wee Hornets and Lightweights didn't fare as well as the Heavies. Both teams lost on shut outs, Pee Wee's 18 to 0 and the Lightweights 12 to 0.

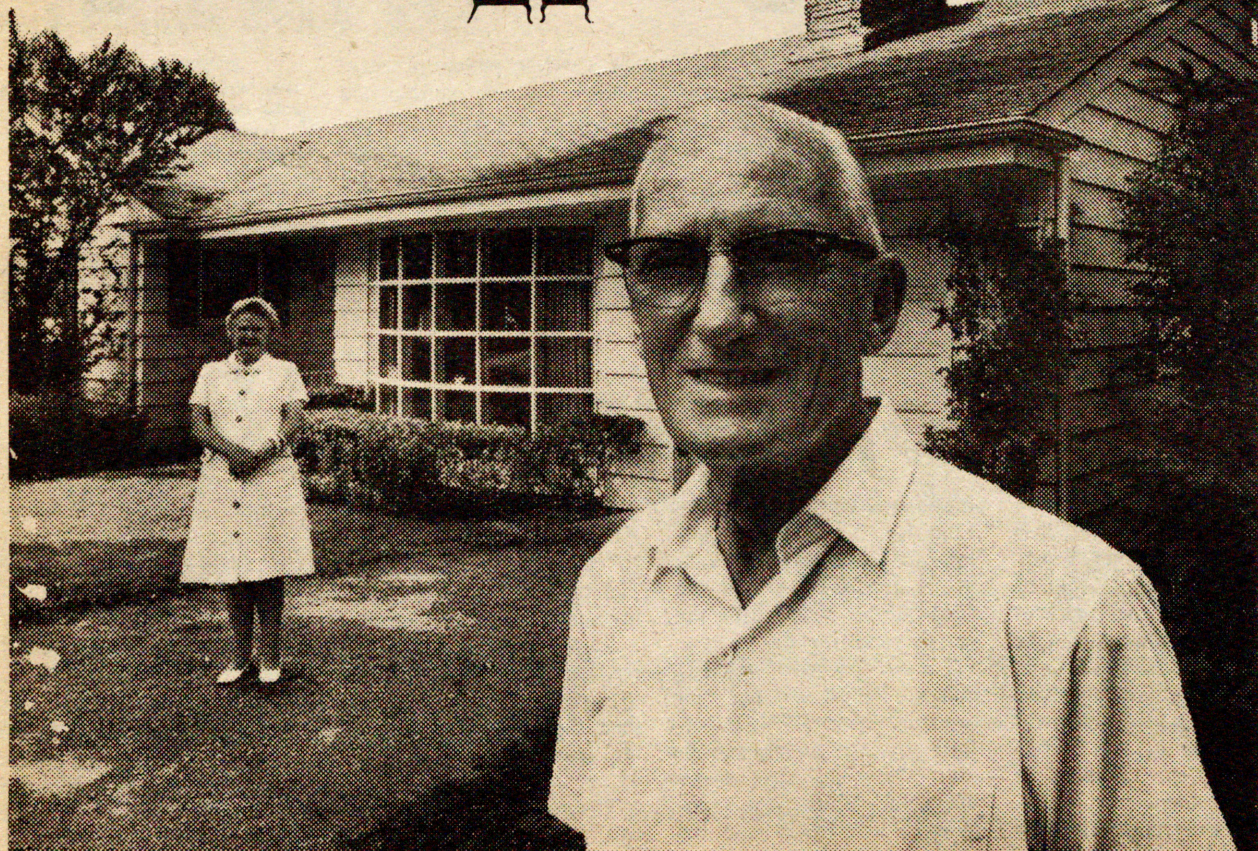

"Eleven years ago, even my wife told me I was crazy to put in Electric Heat."

Back in 1958, you didn't find many people with enough nerve to install an electric heating system when they built a new home. People said it was outrageously expensive...and terribly unreliable. But Ferd Larson believed differently...and even though Mrs. Larson was against it, he was determined to have electric heat.

Over the years, the Larsons have been convinced they made the right decision. Because the only repairs they've needed in eleven years have amounted to a new fan motor and a few adjustments--nothing more. And today, they heat their 7-room home for just a little more than $200 a year.

Over 35,000 families in Northern Illinois heat their homes electrically...and 10,000 more will join them this year. Shouldn't you find out about electric heat? It's really true what they say...

The bright new ideas are Electric.

Lewis Drops 2-1 Decision In Overtime

LOCKPORT -- Lewis College dropped a 2-1 soccer decision to Blackburn College last Friday afternoon. The hotly contested action was decided only after three overtime periods had been played.

Lewis College tallied their only goal on a Joe Kelly shot that eluded the Blackburn goalie with 18:30 of the third period elapsed.

Lewis now has a 1-7-2 record for the season with only one homegame remaining on the schedule. That contest, against Northwestern University, will be played Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. The two final games of the season will be played at George Williams College and Wisconsin State College.

ANSWER: Your Liability insurance covers you and any other legally qualified and responsible person who drives your car with your permission. Your friend is wrong.

Halloween Party Set At Lockport

LOCKPORT -- A Halloween party, sponsored by the Lockport Loyal Order of Moose and the Lockport Lions, will be held at the Moose Club, Friday night.

A parade will precede the party and children in costume may participate by assembling at St. Dennis School at 6 p.m. The parade will begin at 6:30 p.m., going west on 12th Street to State Street, north on State Street to 10th Street, and east on 10th Street to the Moose Club. Movies and treats await the younger children. Lockport East High School will host the students at a dance following the football game.

Because of the parade on Friday night there will be a trick or treat period from 6-9 p.m. Thursday night, Oct. 30.

Halloween celebrants are invited to enjoy the holiday, but a warning by Chief of Police, Robert Gait should be noted by those intent on committing any vandalism. Chief Gait says there will be extra unmarked police cars patrolling the Lockport area.

Parents and children are cautioned to be careful when crossing streets. Dark costumes are not easily seen by motorists and facemasks worn by children obscure their vision to some degree. The combination is dangerous. When possible, it is suggested that parents accompany younger children and flashlights should be carried by children out after dark.

Delinquent Real Estate Tax List For The TOWNSHIP OF FRANKFORT

Following is a list of lands, City and Town lots and blocks situated in the County of Will, State of Illinois, upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, together with the names of the owners, as far as known and the amount of tax thereon, said taxes are for the levy year 1968 and payable in the year 1969 and all forfeited taxes subsequent to the year 1879.

Note: Due to the fact that tax payments have been received by this office after copy was forwarded to the newspaper, names of certain people who have paid their taxes will appear on this list.

Take Notice: In addition to the foregoing amount, the cost of each tract of parcel of land is 49 cents, and on each city or town lot or block 39 cents at this date. A statutory fee of three cents per tract or lot for compiling the delinquent list for the County Court, plus a statutory fee of three cents per tract or lot for compiling delinquent list for the printer is added. At the time of the sale, an additional statutory fee of ten cents for each tract and three cents for each lot sold for taxes is added.

All delinquent taxes for the year 1968 draw interest at the rate of one percent per month or fractional part thereof for delinquency the first installment being delinquent on the first day of July, 1969 and the second installment being delinquent on the first day of September 1969.

Autumn

winter. It is mid-October and the air is crisp and carries a tang that stimulates and cheers.

A touch of frost was to be seen on roofs in early morning last week and while decried by those combatting air pollution the smell of wood smoke as nights chill is a perfume with magic powers that carries one back to simpler, less crowded times.

Autumn evokes many memories. One can recall walks in woods a mind masterpieces of crimson and gold. And those days when one returned home laden with bags of walnuts, hickorynuts and hazelnuts to be cleaned and laid by cracking and eating on winter nights. Those walnut stains! Hulling the nuts left the huller with dark brown fingers from a stain that only time could completely remove.

The only boys in school showing no stains were either those odd lots averse to getting their hands dirty or had ultra fastidious mothers who wielded absolute power in their households. And who can forget the rich, tantalizing aroma of the spice laden pot of chilisauce in the making as it bubbled and simmered on the stove.

Football is still with us, the crisp air, the harvest moon, and the breath-taking colors of autumn. But only in remote spots does one encounter corn in shocks, and, alas, now nut-meats come in cellophane or glass jars and one buys chilisauce in a bottle.

Still and all the fall, especially in mid-October is a wonderful time of the year-especially if one has memories.

at the various governmental agencies involved in the spy business.

Those of us not too mesmerized by the lilting sounds of Lawrence Welk have two of the best musical variety shows ever produced. Tom Jones belts out tunes with a style and verve which has catapulted this Welch coalminer to fame and fortune. On the other end of the decible scale we find that irascible, lackadaisical and thoroughly entertaining songster, Dean Martin. The one-time straightman for Jerry Lewis (Jerry who?) improves with age and will undoubtedly go on and on for many an option.

All in all, I believe the medium is improving as it learns you can fool some of the people some of the time, some of the people all of the time, but not all of the people all of the time.

Exhibit Warns

SOUTHWEST -- Teen girls interested in getting their boyfriends to stop smoking gained new help for their campaign from the Breath of Life exhibit which was at the Lemont Township High School this week.

The mobile unit from the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County (the Christmas Seal agency) features a wide variety of displays on how smoking lung diseases affect the human respiratory system. In charge of the arrangements for its appearance at the Lemont school was John Pedroni, assistant superintendent.

Among the most graphic displays on smoking is a set of lungs taken from a smoker who lived in a large city. Stained to a dark brown by carbon deposit from cigarette smoke and air pollution, they show precisely what smoking does to lung tissue.

Upon seeing it students almost invariably ask, "Would my lung look like that if I smoked?" or "What about air pollution, isn't it just as bad as smoking?"

The special displays on air pollution feature close-up color photos to show the effects of pollutants such as sulfur dioxide on plant life, house paint and metals. Contrasting views of Chicago's skyline show how air pollution casts a dark shadow over the city.

ably get the "thumbs down" treatment after one season. Many a wife will be denouncing this show as she watches her middle-aged spouse disappear in a cloud of dust on his sparkling new Honda.

And how does one ignore that super thief, Robert Wagner alias Al Mundy? It Takes A Thief is in the best tradition of spy thrillers with the added ingredient of thief turned hero. Mundy surely must have the dubious distinction of being the epitome of achievement for all prison inmates and once-upon-a-time prison inmates. The vicarious association has probably caused an avalanche of mail of the Henry E. Hossbach farm (120 acres) - along Ohio St. the south border of Frankfort, was approved and an ordinance annexing the tract, will be presented at the next village board meeting.

Attorney George E. Sangmeister, representing the petitioner, told the board he is filing a petition with the village zoning board of appeals asking that the property be re-classified to I-1 (light industry) as the Panduit Corporation, which has a plant at Tinley Park for the manufacture of electrical components, is planning to build a plant at Frankfort. It will employ approximately 150, Sangmeister said.

The Frankfort board, with the county sharing the cost, has been preparing to widen Center Rd., between Sauk Trail and the E.J. & E. Railway crossing.

The state highway department has set standards for such improvements that it would cost around $80,000, according to estimates by engineers. Now with Ohio St. in the picture, the village is taking a new look.

Indications are that the village may hold up plans on Center St. and consider improving Ohio to provide an outlet for traffic to Laraway Rd. or U.S. 45, and promoting an east-west road between Ohio and Laraway.

This area south of the railroad is being developed industrially and is easy access is made for trucks, it was believed that a lot of such traffic could be diverted from the residential sections.

Mrs. Yurkanin, speaking for the group complaining of truck traffic, explained that parents are especially concerned with the safety of their children. Trucks ply the streets in the vicinity of the grade school, the library and the park, all areas utilized by youngsters, she pointed out.

Mayor Warning told the group that the village board has endeavored to get a truck route established but the request was turned down by the state highway engineer's office at Elgin. He didn't know if petitions would help but suggested that the group try this. The village board, he added, would renew its request for a truck route through town.

Mrs. Yurkanin said the group intended to write the county and state highway officials, the Illinois Municipal League in an effort to get some control over truck traffic and if petitions would help they would be sent too. She added that the group believed local police could help.

Most drivers, truck or car, are usually guilty of some infringement of the traffic laws and if stopped enough times driving about the village she believes truck pilots take the hint and chart a course that would give them the least trouble.

Murphy Engineering has been retained by the state to locate a route for the north-south expressway and is asking for recommendations from the municipalities affected.

Breidert told the Frankfort trustees that the planning board favored the route that would run east of Mokena and border Frankfort on the west.

Development Proposal Delayed

FRANKFORT -- Tom McKay, owner of Triple R Ranch, and the Village of Frankfort are still $200,000 apart on a proposal for an exclusive residential development on the Triple R, southeast of the village.

McKay, who is an attorney as well as a breeder of quarter horses, has plans for a development on his property tailored for those who like horseback riding and outdoor living. He plans curbless streets and bridle paths with central stables for horses owned by residents. He also plans apartments and would have an area zoned for light industrial purposes, with possible annexation to the village.

All this is fine, members of the Frankfort village board agree, but when it comes to McKay's ideas about serving this development with a sewer and water system, the board has its own ideas. McKay has estimated the cost of the sewer and water system at $200,000 and wants the village to pay for it. The village, on the other hand, wants McKay to pay for it and give it to the village.

At a board meeting last week Village Attorney August Santoro presented some figures. McKay's plans cover 39 lots that are valued at $20,000 to $25,000 each and it was estimated that homes built there would average better than $40,000 in value. Santoro, who is also the assessor for Frankfort Township, estimated that if the property were annexed the village would realize about $7,700 a year in taxes from the 40 acres if fully developed.

If the village issued bonds, payable out of taxes paid by residents of Frankfort, Santoro said, it would have to pay short 8 per cent interest and the cost of retiring the bonds in a 20-year period would be approximately $20,000 a year. He figured the village could collect around $3,300 on water sales a year but it was agreed that most of such revenue would be spent in maintenance.

If McKay built an apartment that was valued at more than $1,000,000 and got some industry in, it would be healthier for the village, Santoro said, but it still winds up with the village spending more money to provide the sewer than it could realize in revenue.

McKay wrote the board that he wouldn't give the water and sewer system to the village. The village board has informed McKay that it is in no position to pay for it. The village, however, has not closed the door. The board is still willing to talk and negotiate.

It was brought out, that in the event McKay obtained more land and a large development resulted the village could make money.

Burt Breidert, chairman of the planning commission (several members of which were at the board meeting on another matter), suggested if McKay could sell his sewer and water system to a private utility company it would still be mutually advantageous if the area were annexed. The property is within a mile and a half radius of the village and therefore must be approved by the Village Board.
